Wow! A custom cabin on 1.5 acres with a horse set up in the Giant Sequoia National Monument, close to Forest Service land and the Golden Trout Wilderness–this English Tudor-style home located in Ponderosa is definitely one of a kind! Three stories with the main living area downstairs, a huge master suite with a private bath and walk-in closet on the second floor, and a family room and second bedroom on the top floor. The two-car garage has a half bath and kitchenette set up, as well as a wood stove and bonus room. The custom features—including a fireplace from England, light fixtures from Italy, reproduction curtain tiles in the living room, and the iconic ‘dragon scales’ on the roof—need to be seen in person to appreciate.
